DEDICATION

We, the class of 1951, wish to dedicate our yearbook to the Blessed Virgin.

Mary, our Mother and Model, has instructed, guided, protected, and been with us in all our joys and trials these last four years.

Our Lady entered our lives in a very special way at the beginning of this school year when, on November 1, 1950, the Dogma of Her Assumption into Heaven was promulgated.

Assumpta Est Maria!

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN—El Greco

The Lady on the Golden Dome, Our Mother Protector, watches over Notre Dame, Saint Mary's, Saint Joseph's Academy, and South Bend.

From her lofty tower she views the town of South Bend and the Saint Joseph River whose winding paths lead to all parts of the world. Peoples of all races, creeds, and colors can be found along this path. If these peoples would pray together, they would, like the river, be led back to Mary, their Mother, the Lady on the Golden Dome.

JUNIORS

Audrey McManus was elected class president. Patricia Ketchmark, vice-president; Mary Ann McCay, secretary; Shirley Lentsch, treasurer; Georgia Sechowski, social chairman, were elected to aid Audrey in the various projects to pave the way for the Prom. A Hallowe'en Party was given in honor of the freshies. The juniors made favors for the infirmaries of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's as a Christmas project. The long awaited class rings arrived in time for Christmas. A square dance, stationery sale, and the card party were the main projects to raise funds for the Prom. At last the great day came, the Junior-Senior Prom.

An informal meeting of the junior class officers: Georgia Sechowski, Patricia Ketchmark, Audrey McManus, Shirley Lentsch, and Mary Ann McCay. The problem discussed, "Shall we or shall we not go to school today?"

Five wise Josies, Antoinette Antheunis, Georgeann Barcza, Carol Braunsdorf, Kathleen Brennan, and Arlene Andert are taking a last-minute look at the papers before going into class.

Five little maids on their way to school are Mary Lee Couch, Maureen Collins, Dolores Dennig, Betsy Coswell, and Mary Lu Dillon.

Junior Josies Marilyn Doran, Dorothy Ernst, Carol Fuzy, Rosemary Gyuriak, and Margaret Goepfrich agree with the advertisement, "Have a Coke."

Leone Mackowski, Sally Mrozek, Alice Malia, Janet Nowicki, and Martha Melling patronizing the bookstore.

"Let's have a marshmallow roast," proclaim Kay Roebuck, Joan Robinson, Marilyn Roberts, Jeannette Rozewicz, and Marilyn Rose.

Juniors "rushing" the candy counter are Barbara Schultz, Martha Shilts, Beverly Smith, Barbara Spencer, and Maxine Stachowiak.

Anna Steif, Margie Strantz, Marilyn Szmanda, Rosemary Uhl, and Marian Tschida after attending Mass at Saint Patrick's Church.

Josies relaxing between classes: Shirley Van Dolick, Elsie Van Den Driessche, Suzanne Vanderbosch, Barbara Wittling, and Beverly Waechter.

Florence Johnson, Joyce Luczynski, Marilyn Hoffman, Betty Horwarth, and Joyce Kroll reading the directions for the October Rosary Procession.

SOPHOMORES

The most important project of the year was the freshman initiation under the direction of class officers Nancy Frank, President; Marilou Armstrong, Vice-President; Joan Maciejewski, Secretary; and Patricia Wartha, Treasurer. The annual Christmas party at Saint Augustine's was held on the seventeenth of December. The sophomores were invited to attend the January Semi. A biology trip to Chicago highlighted the final quarter.

The Wedding Feast of Cana

Just another Jewish wedding! That's all that it was to most people, that wedding of Cana. Yet to the young bride and her groom it was one of the most important days of their lives.

It was made even more memorable and pleasant by the presence of Jesus and Mary, the two most perfect creatures ever to live.

Mary, while at Cana, established a social code which has remained unequaled and unchanged by time.

Gentleness and simplicity of manner—kindness—thoughtfulness—qualities of Mary that can, if we will only apply them, make life more pleasant and enjoyable for those with whom we associate at school, at home, or at play.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has completed its third year here at the Academy. Jeannine Berner was elected president. Assisting were Dorothy Ernst, spiritual representative, Marian Schultz, intellectual representative, and Darlene Walkowiak, social representative. The other three officers of the council are chosen from the homeroom representatives; they are: Patricia Lewinski, vice-president; Judy Fredlake, secretary; and Shirley Lentsch, treasurer. Sally Mrozek, Mary Sergio, and Bernardine Gondek are the other representatives.

The first project of the year was a weiner roast to give the upper classes an opportunity to meet the new "Josies." In November, the Student Council sponsored the annual carnival which was a success, socially and financially. The Student Council held the elections for new members in May. The last big event is the school picnic.

Jeannine Berner and Darlene Walkowiak, co-chairmen of the annual school carnival.

Anne Barnes and Millicent Fiwek read the advertisement for "Christ the King," a movie shown during Passion Week.

Darlene Walkowiak, Patricia Lewinski, Marian Schultz, Jeannine Berner, and Judy Fredlake shown with Mayor George A. Schock who lectured to the student body on the city budget. Rev. Joseph McAllister, C.S.C., seated at the extreme right, introduced the Mayor.

Dorothy Ernst (center), religious representative, with Sally Mrozek and Shirley Lentsch, reading the Papal Blessing.

Mary Sergio and Bernardine Gondek, freshmen representatives.

CARNIVAL

Center group: Ann Henthorn, publicity chairman; Darlene Walkowiak, general chairman; Jeannine Berner, student council president. Leressa Buchanan sells Anna Steif a chance on the teddy bear. Sheila Donovan, Patricia Cronin, Patricia Spencer, and Patricia Gundeck at the refreshment booth. Bingo committee: Evelyn Van Driessche, Beverly Marozsan, Mary Jo Waite, Marge Strantz, Joyce Reading, and Theresa Suzanna, seated.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas is the time of joy and good will. It is the time when we receive and give presents. At the Academy we learn the true meaning of Christmas: "It is better to give than to receive." We present food baskets, clothing, and toys to the needy in the name of the Christ Child that He may in return look down upon all of us and bestow His manifold gifts.

Eileen Borkowski, Janet Quinn, Judy Fredlake, Josephine Sergio, and Angela Ernst, Sacred Heart League promoters, prepare Christmas gift baskets for the poor.

Joan Diroll, Joan McGlinchey, Patricia Cerney, Mary Ellen Dempsey, and Patricia Gundeck caught playing with some of the choice toys which were sent by the freshmen to the Catholic Charities.

Sophomores who worked on the refreshment committee for the annual Christmas party given for the children of St. Augustine's Parish were: Rosemary Lemmer, Karen Weddle, Lois Kuboske, Millicent Fiwek, Ann Barnes, Joan Jones, and Mildred Stevens.

Juniors, Mary Lee Couch, Carol Braunsdorf, Janet Nowicki, Marian Tschida, and Arlene Andert pause in their preparation of Christmas favors for the infirmaries of Saint Mary's and Notre Dame to admire their newly-acquired class rings.

Shown packing clothing for a family of eleven are seniors Patricia Abolt, Marie De Meester, Betty Strantz, and Marilou Alspaugh.

Darlene Walkowiak, co-chairman of the 1950 Junior-Senior Prom, crowns the statue of the Blessed Mother during an intermission.

THE STARS WILL

The theme of the Prom, "The Stars Will Remember," was depicted on the stage by a large star and moon. At the right is shown the altar of the Blessed Mother.

Jeannine Berner, chairman of the Prom, crowning Eleanor Huemmer who reigned as Queen of the 1950 Prom.

REMEMBER

Shown with their escorts are the Prom chairmen: Margaret Strantz, flowers; Josephine Sergio, decorations; Darlene Walkowiak, co-chairman; Jeannine Berner, chairman; and Dorothy De Bruyne, programs.

Acknowledgements

Upon completing the 1951 JOSILE, we find that we have been advised, helped, and encouraged by many. We wish to express our gratitude to the following: Mr. DeGroff of the DeGroff Studio, Mr. Louis A. Kubiak of the McClave Printing Company, Mr. Smith and Mr. Betz of the Pilot Engraving Company, The South Bend Tribune, and Mr. John H. Trittinger. We also extend our thanks to the faculty and our patrons for their kind interest. To Sister M. Raphaelita, C.S.C., goes our appreciation for her assistance and guidance.
